

Databases

SEZAM (Archival Holdings Registration System) - contains information about National Archival Resources stored in state archives.

DATABASES SEZAM

IZA (Inventories of some archival fonds) -The system contains integrated information from data bases grouping of archival materials - documentation of records, files and cartographic technology. In total, we presented a nearly 2 400 000 described archival units, located in the inventories of more than 24 900 teams, representing more than 28% of all teams kept in state archives.

DATABASES IZA

PRADZIAD (Vital records and civil registers) - Program of Registration Act Civil Records and Civil Status contain information about the public register and marital status which are stored in all state archives. Database does not contain lists of names in the documents or information about specific individuals.

DATABASES PRADZIAD

ELA (Population Database in Archive) contains information prepared for different purposes and for different purposes census, in all their physical forms (records, lists, files, etc.), Located in the archival material stored in the state archives (data contain information collected in 2009.). Database does not contain lists of names in the documents or information about specific individuals.

DATABASES ELA

Personal and payroll records

The database contains data on personal documentation and wage employers stored in the state archives, offices of central and local administration and in businesses and others who are in this range of business.

DATABASES PERSONAL AND PAYROOL RECORDS